

Arts & Letters K-8 Text List

With Arts and Letters™, students embark on a wonder-filled journey where they are captivated and challenged by the content-rich stories they explore, people they meet, and understanding they gain. As they build rich layers of knowledge, students see themselves and connect to the world around them.

The texts that are a part of each Arts & Letters module include content-rich books, articles, videos, fine art, audio recordings, and more. Below you will find a list of the books and works of arts students will encounter in each module. Class sets serve 24 (Levels K-5) to 30 (Levels 6-8) students, with suggested quantities based on if the text is a whole group read aloud or reading occurs in a small group, pairs, or independently.
